You Can Make A Difference Ten Things You Can Do To Leave A Legacy

1. Ask your financial advisor to include charitable giving as a part of their counsel to other clients.
2. Name your favorite charity as the beneficiary of an existing life insurance policy.
3. Prepare a will. Only half of those who pass away have one. Without a will, you lose control of the possessions you worked a lifetime to acquire.
4. Leave a gift in your will for the charitable organizations that made a difference in your life. Less than 3 percent of all wills settled contain a charitable provision.
5. Consider using assets for your charitable gift. These can include stocks, bonds, CD's, real estate, vehicles, art, and jewelry. Such gifts may even provide tax savings.
6. Leave a specific dollar amount or a percentage of assets in your will to your favorite charity. The provision can be a part of a new will or added as a codicil to your existing will.
7. Purchase a new life insurance policy naming your favorite charity as beneficiary.
8. Name your favorite charity as the beneficiary of your IRA or pension plan.
9. Remember deceased loved ones with memorial gifts to charities.
10. Encourage family members and friends to leave gifts to charities in their wills.
